

AUSTRALIAN JOURNAL OF OUTDOOR EDUCATION

The Australian Journal of Outdoor Education is a peer reviewed journal that publishes the latest research on all topics related to outdoor education. The readers of the Australian Journal of Outdoor Education include classroom teachers, academics, practitioners and students. Articles on any topic related to the scholarly advancement of outdoor edu will be considered. Recent examples of topics covered include:

- Ethical frameworks in outdoor education
- The work of John Dewey
- Children's' outdoor play in early childhood centres
- Teacher's beliefs about safety and risk
- Decision making in adventure contexts
- The content of outdoor education textbooks
- An analysis of outdoor education fatalities

Edyta Pelc

Non-refereed papers are also published. This can be a good way for new researchers or graduate students to gain experience writing scholarly articles.

To find out more about the submission process go to:

<http://www.outdoorcouncil.asn.au/13.html>

If you need more information about publishing your work in AJOE please do not hesitate to contact the Editor on:

ajoe@outdoorcouncil.asn.au

Funded by the Outdoor Council of Australia

